Service Architecture Overview

Browser client, app service, data store, document store and reconstruction adapter.

Authentication, role-aware navigation, and manager review are core platform functions.

Source documents remain untrusted inputs until reviewed and approved.